

School of Foreign Studies

South China Normal University

Sino-Canada Symposium on Teacher Professional Development: Knowledge, Behavior and Cognitive Processes

Keynote Lecture Series

May 22, 2019

Venue: Room 832
School of Foreign Studies

Chair: Dr. Yuanke Li
Associate Professor

9:00 am - 11:30 am

Understanding teachers' teaching decision making: A test impact study applying the theory of planned behavior

Dr. Liyan Huang

*Professor
Vice Dean
School of Foreign Studies
South China Normal University*

3:00 pm - 5:30 pm

Understanding teacher assessment literacy in practice: Complexities of issues and implications for practice

Dr. Yueting Xu

*Professor
Pearl River Scholar of Guangdong Province
Faculty of English Education
Guangdong University of Foreign Studies*

Professional learning in the context of literacy education: Exploring elementary teachers' patterns of behavior and cognitive processes

Dr. Pamela Beach

*Assistant Professor in Language and Literacy
Faculty of Education
Queen's University*

Unpacking educator expectations and student outcomes in the early years

Dr. Kristy Timmons

*Assistant Professor
Faculty of Education
Queen's University*

~All are welcome~