

Intensive English for the Global Citizen Program

3 or 4 weeks, 27 hours/week

Offered by the UBC Continuing Studies English Language Institute, the English for the Global Citizen (EGC) program is designed for students seeking to improve their language skills while learning about sustainability, global citizenship and civil society.

EGC offers students the opportunity to:

- improve speaking and listening skills, increase vocabulary, enhance fluency and pronunciation
- develop academic writing skills and grammar
- build critical reading abilities
- learn in a supportive environment, collaborating with other students under the direction of experienced language instructors
- actively participate in debates and discussion forums, be exposed to guest lecturers and conduct research for oral presentations and written reports.

CURRICULUM

The program is comprised of three different modules to help students learn and practise English. Content is not repeated across the modules.

Module A Themes	Module B Themes	Module C Themes
Cross-Cultural Communication	Canadian Society	Living in Communities
Life in Society	World Community	Global Citizen
The Politics of Food	Climate Change	Environment
Media/Technology	Employment	The Consumer

SOCIO-CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

What takes place in the ESL classroom is just the beginning of the learning experience. Our social activities program is one of the special features that make the UBC Continuing Studies English Language Institute an exceptional place to learn English.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Participants must have completed high school and have, at a minimum, a beginner level of English. Class placement tests are conducted on the first day of the program.
